15. The Distributor paying through cheque must ensure that the cheque issued by him is honored on the date of the cheque. If the bank on whom the cheque is drawn, dishonors the cheque for reasons related to 'Insufficient Funds', then the company will levy a cheque Dishonor charge on the Distributor without prejudicing its right to seek recourse for such dishonor.
16. The company will provide a standard credit period of 60 days from the date of the invoice. The company may offer Cash Discounts for paying dues within 60 days, the details of which are usually provided in the Price List or Schemes applicable for the period. Dues remaining unpaid above 180 days will be considered as Overdue. The company may levy interest on Overdue payments.
17. The Distributor will generally not accept any Sales Return unless the material supplied were damaged in transit. However, for select products, the company allows Sales Return within certain limits and under certain conditions. The details of which are available in the yearly Sales Return policy. The Distributor is required to follow the terms of this policy for matters relating to Sales Return and obtain prior approval from the responsible sales official before dispatching material. The company will not provide any credit for material returned in violation to its Sales Return policy.
18. The Distributor is required not to enter into any financial transactions with any member of the sales team, either in the form of material or funds. All such transactions will be considered as personal and un sanctioned and the company will not be liable for the outcome of such transactions.
19. The Distributor will not handover any material to any member of the sales team without specific written instruction issued by the Head Office of the company.
20. The Distributor is required to maintain the integrity of the packaging in which the products are supplied by the company at all times and is required not to tamper with the packets, designs, logos and trademarks of the company in any way. Any unauthorized use of the company's designs, logos and trademarks will be counted as an infringement of the intellectual property rights of the company.
21. The Distributor is required to comply with all requirements of GST as applicable to him, related to periodic Returns, Credit Notes and others with respect to its transactions with the company. Further, the Distributor may be required to share with the company, upon request, documents supporting compliance of such requirements of GST.
22. The company will share with the Distributor, an Account Statement at the end of every 6 months either on his registered email or through any other preferred mode of communication. However, the Distributor can ask for his updated account statement at any time by sending email at customercare_uacisandb@universagri.in or by calling the Customer Care Helpline at +91 8336929400.
23. The company will share with the Distributor, a Confirmation of Accounts at the end of each financial year either on his registered email or through any other preferred mode of communication. The Distributor is required to review the account statement and reconcile the balance on the statement with the balance in his books of accounts. Upon completion of review, the Distributor will be required to sign and seal on the Confirmation and hand it over to the TSM.
24. In addition to these, the company may from time to time issue communications on these and/ or other business policies which may, from the date of such communication, supersede any business practices or policies previously followed by the company including but not limited to the ones mentioned above.
25. Disputes, if any, will be subject to the jurisdiction of the courts of Kolkata, West Bengal.
